

lingo art  the language
training experts

Individual German Courses

Face-to-face classes

Online courses

Phone classes

www.lingo-art.de

Our German trainer team

Andrea
Kleeberger

Beate Hohenberger

Karin Heigl

Naomi Wieland

Ingrid Kraft

Maria Schleindlsperger

and other trainers

Qualified language trainers

lingo art is one of the few language schools that mainly work with permanently employed trainers. This offers stability and flexibility. We provide targeted support and training for our teachers to keep their methodology and didactics up to date.

Our trainers are native speakers or have near-native German skills. Many of them have multiple qualifications and come from different professional backgrounds. They know from their own experience how companies work and have been teaching for many years.

Details about our team and their professional development can be found on our website.

www.lingo-art.de

Our course types

classic private

Individual face-to-face lessons at lingo art, at your place of work or on request at your home.

virtual private

Individual online lessons on Skype, zoom or the platform of your choice.

phone

Intensive one-to-one phone training to improve your listening comprehension and communication skills or for specialist topics.

open

Group courses for colleagues or friends with comparable German skills or interest in similar topics. Open courses can take place at lingo art, in your company or online.

We now offer more flexibility:

You can participate online in a group face-to-face lesson.

Ideal for participants who

- are not based in Munich
- are on a business trip
- work from home or another office
- want to study together with colleagues or friends.

Our services

Level check

We will assess your German language skills, discuss the course options and answer your questions.

Combine course forms flexibly

We redefine flexibility in a completely new way. You can either choose one of our course forms (face-to-face, online or phone training) or you can combine 2 or even 3 course forms individually or you can change from week to week - depending on your needs and time.

Course schedule

We are very flexible when it comes to planning the course schedule. Regular lessons make planning easier.

Schedule changes and cancellations

You can cancel lessons free of charge up until 2.00 pm the day before (2.00 pm on Friday for classes taking place on Monday).

Course duration

We generally recommend 3 or 6 months for a course. However, we are happy to adapt to your wishes.

International tests and exams

lingo art is a certified test centre for many international examinations such as WiDAF or MoFaD.

Our German courses

German from CEF A1 to C1

We focus on all skills in accordance with the CEF: Speaking, listening, reading and writing, and (from CEF B1 onwards) mediation. Improve your German skills step by step.

Improve your writing skills

Written communication at work, for e-mails and correspondence with customers, business partners or authorities, documentation, minutes, specialist articles. You will learn how to phrase sentences in a stylistically correct way and how to express yourself confidently in writing.

Speak and communicate better in German

We help you to boost your oral communication skills: speak confidently on the phone, explain and argue in meetings, hold presentations, and negotiate in German. We tailor the topics to your needs.

Improve your grammar

Finally understand and correctly use German grammar. In this course we will work specifically on your weak points or build up your grammar knowledge.

German for specialists and managers

From the very beginning you will learn how to communicate with colleagues and business partners in German, how to write e-mails and make phone calls.

German for specific purposes

Individual exam preparation for Goethe Certificate or telc exams B1, B2, C1 or C2

You have already attended a German course and would like to prepare for a telc exam or the Goethe Certificate in individual lessons.

Individual coaching

Specialist topics and language personalized to your needs. We build up or extend your specific skills or focus on the area you need, such as German for meetings or presentations.

German for HR and Recruiting

Discuss current HR topics with your trainer, improve your communication with applicants and employees or talk about individual topics from active sourcing to employer branding.

German for Applications and Job Interviews

Optimize your application files, including CV and cover letter. Create your XING or LinkedIn profile in German. Draft individual e-mail templates for personnel consultants, headhunters or recruiters. Practice your self-presentation and find out the right answers to interview questions.

Improve your German pronunciation

Good pronunciation is a prerequisite for successful communication. In individual lessons we will work specifically on improving your pronunciation.

Talk to us. We look forward to your call.

phone 089 13 01 158-0

Arrange a call back appointment online.

<https://lingo-art.de/kontakt>

Our friendly team are happy to help you.

lingo art – the language training experts

Andrea Kleeberger

Arnulfstr. 132

80634 München

info@lingo-art.de

www.lingo-art.de